Dear Dinosaur

With Real Letters to Read!

Chae Strathie; illustrations by Nicola O'Byrne

When Max visits a local museum, he wishes he could ask the dinosaurs a bunch of questions. Since the museum is about to close, the curator (Dinosaur Dora) says, "Why don't you write our T. Rex a letter? He might even write back." Now, this unlikely duo embark on a fun pen pal relationship that spans the ages . . . and includes very real cards and letters to open. (Ages 3-7)
